

Goodness and Mercy

Craft Project

There is no new craft for this lesson. However, since this is the second to last lesson, it is a good time to have the kids catch up on any of the parts they may have missed. If a child has all the parts to his box, he may help someone else who has missed quite a bit, or he may do some more painting on his box.